About Humanim

Mission
Humanim’s mission is to support and empower individuals who face social or economic challenges — by building pathways to economic equity, opportunity, and independence.

Our History
Founded in 1971, Humanim has over four decades of experience supporting and economically empowering individuals. Our organization was founded on the belief that every human being has potential and that work is transformative, with the goal of creating economic equity for individuals with disabilities and socio-economic challenges. Since 1971, Humanim’s services have expanded to include 35+ programs in the areas of human services, workforce development, youth services, and social enterprise, throughout Maryland and parts of Delaware. This diverse but connected expansion of services is testament to our strategic risk taking and the dynamic approach we take to achieving our mission. Our growth continues through strategic corporate, public, and private partnerships, as well as through community and business development. With over 400 employees, we continue to deliver employment opportunities and the highest standard of support services to over 4,000 people a year.

Equity Statement
Humanim values inclusivity as core in our ability to serve our customers, staff, and stakeholders in our community.

We choose to respect, celebrate, honor and embrace the unique attributes, characteristics, cultures, classes, faiths, orientations and races that make people who they are. This engenders excellence in who we are and what we do as an organization. This climate for inclusion and excellence is key to building strong diversified leadership and exceptional customer service. We provide a safe environment to address the critical and complex issues that face Humanim, stakeholders in our community and persons served related to institutional issues creating disparities and impacting equity. We are passionate about our cause, our values system and know that our ability to achieve excellence begins with reflecting internally what we expect in our partnerships, strategies and investments.

Culture of Inclusion

IN-CLU-SION (IN-KLZHN) N. a strategy to leverage diversity.

Diversity always exists in social systems. Inclusion, on the other hand, must be created. In order to leverage diversity, an environment must be created where people feel supported, listened to and able to do their personal best.

At Humanim, we strive to engender and promote a culture of inclusion for our partners, clients, and staff. To that end, along with senior leadership, Humanim’s Inclusiveness Committee is charged with the expressed goal of ensuring Humanim is and continues to be an inclusive and racially equitable organization.

To achieve that goal, Humanim works to:

- Build awareness and understanding of structural racism as it relates to hiring and programming
- Create and promote an organizational culture of inclusion through trainings, orientations, events, discussions, and other social and educational opportunities
- Enact policies and procedures that promote racial equity
- Investigate and address any current inequities in the organization’s structure
- Work with funders and partners to better understand the effects and impact of structural racism
- Engage in corporate, institutional, and other community partnerships through a lens of racial equity
What We Do

HUMAN SERVICES
We offer a range of programs and services that enhance growth, independence, and quality of life for individuals with developmental and psychiatric disabilities. Our person-centered approach emphasizes individualized care, community integration and customized employment, with the goal of empowering individuals to achieve both personal and economic independence.

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT
Our strategic business partnerships, job training programs, and employment services strengthen and grow the workforce by building skills, placing people in good jobs and forging opportunities in exciting industries. We work to provide pathways to employment for those who may face social or economic barriers.

YOUTH SERVICES
We work with schools, communities and other local partners to empower young people to transition successfully into adulthood and the world of work through paid internships, vocational and life-skills training, and behavioral health services. We also strive to strengthen families through services that include case management, financial coaching, goal planning, and connection to supportive resources.

SOCIAL ENTERPRISE
The Humanim Social Enterprise Division operates competitive, revenue-generating businesses with a clear social mission: to hire and train people who are striving to overcome employment barriers including incarceration, substance abuse, disability, or limited education. Our enterprises provide real, paying jobs with on-the-job training and wraparound services that help employees stabilize their lives, build their skills, and succeed.
